All Pr. Chief Commissioners of Income Tax/Pr. Director Generals of Income Tax

Madam/Sir.

Subject: Inviting Articles for Taxalogue “an e-Journal of the Income Tax Department- regarding

It is announced with pride and satisfaction that the Directorate of Income Tax (Legal and Research) has successfully released the 7th issue of the Taxalogue on the website i.e. www.irsufficiersonline.gov.in on 28.05.2021.

In the journey of Taxalogue one more milestone has been crossed in that the 7th issue is an entirely in-house publication. Besides editing, even the technical parts of formatting, designing and uploading was done by the officers in the Directorate of Audit and Inspections with new members on the Editorial Board. This would not have been possible without the contributions of Articles by the officers of the Department from different parts of the country who despite the difficult situation took out time to share their knowledge and insights.

Sharing of knowledge is bound to make the journey of tax administration more rewarding and enriching. With this conviction, contribution of articles, essays, research works on any topic related to any chapter and section of the Income Tax Act or Rules which has a bearing on effective Tax Administration and Tax Payer services are invited for the upcoming 8th issue for the quarter April – June and subsequent publications of “Taxalogue”. I request you to encourage the officers posted in your region to forward their article on any tax issue of their choice by sending an e-mail at taxalogue@incometax.gov.in.

Yours faithfully,

(Reena Sinha Puri)

Director General of Income Tax
(Legal and Research)
New Delhi

Procedure for Officers for sending articles for Taxalogue.

The article(s) can be sent on the email id: taxalogue@incometax.gov.in

The author while sending the article through e-mail may provide executive summary and few lines about him/her.

The author while sending the article through e-mail should provide the following disclaimer:

"This is to certify that the reported work submitted by me for publication in Taxalogue is an original work and has not been published elsewhere. I further certify that proper citations to the previous reported work have been given and no data/tables/figures have been quoted verbatim from other publications without giving due acknowledgement and without the permission of the original author(s)."

The Author may send the soft copy of passport sized photo while submitting the article via e-mail.

Proposed Structure of an Article

An article may be structured in following format:

Title : Compose a title that is simple, attractive and reflects the contents of the Article.

Header: no header should be used as header will be auto populated by the system.

Footer: footers may be used for noting references related to same page. For referencing, standard numerals in italics may be used within the text.

Abstract/Summary: A summary/abstract of the article may be given in the beginning which should not be more than 100 words.

Introduction: It is expected that writers will provide introduction to their article before moving into the main contents. Introduction may contain the discussed issue with it's background.

Acknowledgments/References: Acknowledgements/References (if any) may please be given at the end of the article.
